DVSAS Domestic Violence and
Sexual Assault Services

Mission & Vision

Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Services of Whatcom County supports individuals affected by domestic violence, sexual assault, and sexual exploitation and leads the community towards ending these abuses of power.

We believe...

All people have the right to be in a safe, non-violent community.

Personal empowerment is essential to an individual's growth and healing.

Volunteers empower the community to help and care for itself.

It is individuals who choose to abuse and they are responsible for their behavior.

All people have the right to be free from physical, emotional, and sexual abuse.

Community-based solutions are essential to ending violence.

We believe in a community free from violence.

"I came to the shelter feeling broken and afraid. I leave knowing how capable and strong I am. I will be forever grateful."

A word from some of our Board members:

“At its core, the DVSAS organization is focused on helping individuals and society move from points of crisis to transformation and, in 2019/2020, unplanned changes in executive management coupled with a world-wide health crisis tested that focus. Over the course of the year, every member of the DVSAS family -- volunteer, staff member, Board member and donor -- made deeply personal sacrifices of time, talent and money to stay the course. While individuals and organizations across the globe faltered, the DVSAS family continued to support those for whom the pandemic increased their need of support and services. As a DVSAS Board member, I am humbled by and proud of the passion, creativity, kindness, flexibility and resilience of the DVSAS family.”

• Maryann Renzi, DVSAS Board of Directors, Secretary •

“COVID-19 has made it clear that domestic violence and sexual assault still persist in our community. It is more important than ever that we continue the important work of sheltering survivors, treating and assisting victims and educating our neighbours and families about the resources that DVSAS provides.”

• Dan Hammill, DVSAS Board of Directors •

A big welcome to our new Executive Director!

“Coming on-board with DVSAS has been a great experience. The team accepted me immediately which has allowed me to work with them in supporting survivors, themselves, and the organization. I’m looking forward to continued opportunities to create meaningful change and growth within the organization while focusing on providing quality services to survivors.”

• Nicole Berman, Executive Director •

Services & Programs

Despite a difficult year navigating the ever-changing scope of Covid-19, DVSAS was able to provide for our clients and community in amazing ways.

These numbers reflect the hard work and dedication of our staff, volunteers, and clients. We thank you for your ongoing support and look forward to continuing our work.

Immediate Help

Immediate services are available through the DVSAS 24-hour helpline. Advocacy counselors provide crisis intervention, emergency safety planning, emotional support, and referrals over the phone and in-person. Additionally, advocates respond to PeaceHealth hospital during forensic sexual assault exams.

930

Helpline calls answered by volunteers and staff

13,903

Survivors accessed DVSAS services throughout the year

32

Survivors supported during forensic sexual assault exams

Support Services

Support services include long-term advocacy counseling; support groups for women, men, LGBTQ+ survivors, incarcerated survivors, and teens; legal advocacy; and a children's program.

599

372

Hours of serving children in the Safe Start Children's Program

1297

Hours of support groups to help 149 survivors

Safe Housing Program

Survivors of violence can access safe, confidential housing for up to 90 days through this program. Three shelter facilities house families and singles and their house pets. Safe hotels are also provided.

94

Survivors were sheltered in the Safe Housing Program

16

Survivors moved into transitional or supportive housing upon leaving our program

18

Residents escaped homelessness through the support of the Beyond Shelter program

Prevention Education Services

DVSAS offers trainings and education on domestic violence, sexual assault, and sexual exploitation at schools, community groups, and businesses. Education, awareness, and training is a positive step towards preventing domestic and sexual violence and empowers victims to find help.

9

Schools in Whatcom County engaged with DVSAS*

32

Classrooms participated in the Empowerment Project*

850

Middle & High School students received prevention education*

*Despite Covid-19, DVSAS was able to successfully provide additional services through an online self-paced Education Prevention training.

DVSAS Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Services

2020 brought with it many challenges, but also many opportunities for growth. DVSAS Fundraising Events were tremendously impacted due to COVID-19 Public Health mandates, including stay-at-home orders and restriction on public events.

We will make every effort to come back strong in 2021 with continued outlook on life following the Pandemic. There is light and life on the horizon and we plan to seize the moment in 2021.
